

Dear Friend,

I've read your letter several times and have some questions about the teachings of the Watchtower, specifically regarding Jehovah and Jesus. While I've never formally studied with Jehovah's Witnesses, I've had conversations with them at my door over the years and have always found those discussions insightful. I'm confident that God loves them, as He loves all of us, as stated in John 3:16. Before delving into questions about Watchtower teachings, I'd like to ask you a few personal questions. These are questions I would also answer affirmatively:

Do you consider yourself an honest person?

Do you believe the Bible is the ultimate authority for faith and life?

Do you believe that no truth in Scripture will ever contradict itself?

If you answered yes to these questions, I trust you'll be honest with me and yourself, knowing that Jehovah knows everything we say and do.

Now, let's discuss some of the Watchtower's teachings to ensure I understand them correctly. I'll underline the points I've been told by various Jehovah's Witnesses, who all answered yes to these. Do you agree?

Doesn't the Watchtower teach that Jehovah is God the Father and that Jesus is Michael the Archangel, Jehovah's first created being? Yes or No?

After that, Jesus created everything else. Yes or No?

When a Jehovah's Witness answered yes to these questions, I would ask, "How could you have any hope?" Their response was often, "What do you mean?"

This leads to a critical question about Scripture and potential contradictions. If the Father created Jesus first, who then created everything else, how do we reconcile this with what Scripture teaches? Consider these verses:

Isaiah 44:24 (NWT):

"This is what Jehovah has said, your Repurchaser and the Former of you from the belly: 'I, Jehovah, am doing everything, stretching out the heavens by myself, laying out the earth. Who was with me?'"

This verse suggests that Jehovah acted alone in creation. Now, let's look at another verse:

John 1:3 (NWT):

"All things came into existence through him [Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh], and apart from him, not even one thing came into existence."

In context, John 1:3 indicates that Jesus created all things, with no exceptions—including, logically, Michael the Archangel.

If the Bible is indeed our ultimate authority for faith and life, an honest person must agree with these Scriptures, right? To accept both verses as true, we must understand who Jehovah truly is.

Zechariah is a book rich in prophecies about Jehovah, many of which are fulfilled in the New Testament. An honest reading of these Scriptures, especially in the chapters and verses I'll reference, makes it clear that these prophecies are directly fulfilled in the New Testament by Jesus. Please take a look at the included copies from the NWT.

This brings me back to my original question about hope. Jesus said in Matthew 10:32-33:

Matthew 10:32-33 (NWT):

“Everyone, then, that confesses union with me before men, I will also confess union with him before my Father who is in the heavens; but whoever disowns me before men, I will also disown him before my Father who is in the heavens.”

According to John 1:3, Jesus created all things without exception, and Isaiah 44:24 states that Jehovah created everything by Himself. In Zechariah 11:12-13, Jehovah says He would be sold for thirty pieces of silver, which is fulfilled in Matthew 26:14-16. In Zechariah 12:10, Jehovah says they will look upon Him whom they have pierced, fulfilled in John 19:37. And Zechariah 14:3-5, Jehovah says He will return to the Mount of Olives, which is echoed in Acts 1:11-12 regarding Jesus’ return.

Zechariah 11:12-13 (NWT):

“Then I said to them: ‘If it is good in your eyes, give me my wages; but if not, refrain.’ And they proceeded to pay my wages, thirty pieces of silver. At that, Jehovah said to me: ‘Throw it to the treasury—the majestic value with which I have been valued from their standpoint.’ Accordingly, I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw it into the treasury at the house of Jehovah.”

Zechariah 14:3-4 (NWT):

“And Jehovah will certainly go forth and war against those nations as in the day of his warring, in the day of fight. And his feet [Jehovah’s feet] will actually stand in that day upon the mountain of the olive trees, which is in front of Jerusalem, on the east...”

I’ve copied these passages from your NWT so you can see for yourself. If you have the older brown reference version of the NWT, please check the center reference column. It will show that Jesus fulfilled these prophecies in the New Testament. I’ve verified this to be an honest person and ensure accuracy. My KJV has the same references. Unless the Watchtower has altered the center reference columns in its newer versions, it’s evident in both our translations that these prophecies refer to Jehovah, who is clearly identified in the New Testament as Jesus. If we don’t know who Jehovah truly is, everything else becomes irrelevant. Would you agree?

John 1:3 clearly states that Jesus created everything without exception. The question is, what is our actual authority? The Bible alone should be that authority, but taking Scripture out of context can change the meaning of truth. This is what happened in the Garden of Eden when Eve believed the serpent’s lie rather than God’s Word. We must be like the Bereans, who tested even the Apostle Paul’s teachings to ensure they were in harmony with all Scripture.

It’s been a privilege to engage with God’s Word like a Berean, without relying on commentaries and applying the rules of context and harmony to preserve the authority of Scripture. I hope these words find a heart that values truth above all else.

Sincerely Yours,

If you don't know who Jehovah is, all the rest doesn't matter!

- Zech 14:3-4 Jehovah's feet will stand on the Mount of Olives. Zech 14:5b Jehovah will return with all His holy ones (Saints).
- Acts 1:11-12 Jesus' feet will stand on the Mount of Olives. Jude 14 & 1Thess 3:13 Jessus will return with all His Saints.
- Zech 14:9 Jehovah must become king over all the earth. John 19:19 & Rev 19:16 Jesus becomes King over all the earth.
