

Dear Precious Soul,

I have reread your letter several times and have some questions about the Watchtower's teaching concerning Jehovah and Jesus. I have never studied with Jehovah's Witnesses, but I have spoken with them at different times at my door and always learn something. I know that God loves them, for He so loved the world... John 3:16. Before I ask the questions about Watchtower teachings, could I ask you some personal questions first? You could also ask me these three same questions and I would answer yes to each of them.

1 Do you consider yourself to be an honest person?

2 Do you believe that the Bible is your absolute authority for faith and life?

3 Do you believe that no truth in Scripture will ever contradict itself?

If you answered these questions in the positive, then I believe you will be honest with me and yourself, for we both know that Jehovah is aware of everything that we say and do.

Now, the next questions are about Watchtower teachings. I want to be sure that my understanding is correct. I will underline what I have been told by Jehovah's Witnesses who spoke to me at different times in the past. Their answer was always yes and do you agree?

1 Doesn't the Watchtower teach that Jehovah is God the Father and that Jesus is Michael, the Archangel, Jehovah's first creating being? Yes, or No?

2 After that, Jesus created everything else? Yes, or No?

When a Jehovah's Witness answered yes to these questions, I always asked them, "How could you then have any hope?" They would usually say, "What do you mean?"

The answer has to do with question three and God's Word contradicting itself. The contradiction to believing that the Father created Jesus first and then he created everything else, lies in the truth and context of these two verses and many more, i.e.,

Isa 44:24 NWT

This is what Jehovah has said, your Repurchaser and the Former of you from the belly: "I, Jehovah, am doing everything, stretching out the heavens [talking about creation] by myself, [God did not have anyone helping Him] laying out the earth. Who was with me? This is where the honesty test begins for each of us, right?

John 1:3 NWT

*All things came into existence through him, [Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh vs 14] and apart from him not even one thing came into existence. What has come into existence. So, verse three, in context with verses one and two, is saying that Jesus created all things and there are no exceptions, not even one, and that would include Michael the Archangel, right?*

Since the Scripture is the absolute authority for faith and life, then an honest person is compelled to agree with it, right?

In order for anyone to agree with both of these verses, that person must know who Jehovah is, right? In all of the Bible there is only one book that has more prophecies than Zechariah about Jehovah, which are fulfilled in the New Testament (NT), and that is the book of Isaiah. An honest person will agree with who and what these Scriptures are prophesying about Jehovah in all places, but especially in these chapters and verses in Zechariah, where it is unmistakably clear how they are directly fulfilled in the NT. Please take a look at these in the NWT copies included.

The reason I ask Jehovah's Witnesses how they could have any hope is because Jesus said that if you deny him before men, he will deny you before his Father as stated here in Matthew 10:32-33; 32 Everyone, then, that confesses union with me before men, I will also confess union with him before my Father who is in the heavens; 33but whoever disowns me before men, I will also disown him before my Father who is in the heavens.

John 1:3 says that Jesus created all things, without any exceptions and in Isaiah 44:24 Jehovah said he created everything by himself. Then, in Zechariah 11:12-13, Jehovah said he would be sold for thirty pieces of silver. In Zechariah 12:10, Jehovah said they would look on him who they had pierced. This was stated as being fulfilled in John 19:37. Then in Zechariah 14:3-5, Jehovah said he would return at Armageddon to the Mount of Olives. And with all his saints with him, which is a reference to Jesus returning with all his holy ones.

Zechariah 11:12-13 NWT

12 Then I said to them: "If it is good in YOUR eyes, give [me] my wages; but if not, refrain." And they proceeded to pay my wages, thirty pieces of silver. 13 At that, Jehovah said to me: "Throw it to the treasury—the majestic value with which I have been valued from their standpoint." Accordingly I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw it into the treasury at the house of Jehovah.

Zechariah 14:3-4 NWT

3 "And Jehovah will certainly go forth and war against those nations as in the day of his warring, in the day of fight. 4 And his feet [Jehovah's feet] will actually stand in that day [Armageddon] upon the mountain of the olive trees, which is in front of Jerusalem, on the east; and the mountain of the olive trees must be split at its middle, from the sunrising and to the west. There will be a very great valley; and half of the mountain will actually be moved to the north, and half of it to the south.

I have made a copy from the pages of your NWT so you can see for yourself. If you have the older, large version of the NWT, that's like a large dictionary, I believe it's called the brown reference version, please look at the center reference column (copy included) it will show you that all of these prophecies are fulfilled in the NT by Jesus. I checked this out, because I want to be an honest person and I wanted to be sure. My KJV has the same references. So, unless the Watchtower has changed their newer versions, which would be dishonest, it is clear in both our translations; these prophecies are references to who Jehovah is. To me, if one does not know who Jehovah is, all the rest doesn't matter. Would you agree with that? John 1:3 clearly states twice that Jesus created everything with no exceptions. Now, comes the question of what truly is our authority. The Bible alone is the authority, but by ignoring the context and harmony rules, one can change the meaning of any and all truth. This is what the serpent did to Eve in the Garden. Instead of staying with God's word, she believed his commentary instead. By doing this, she lost the authority of God's word and so will everyone else who does the same thing.

Is it the Scriptures? Could we truly be like the Bereans (they tested even the Apostle Paul's message and he welcomed it) and tested what anyone said about the Scriptures. They wanted to make sure that it was spoken in context and harmony with all Scriptures. That brings the harmony and context rule into play with every word, sentence, paragraph, and every book from Genesis to Revelation.

It's been my great pleasure to have had this opportunity to follow God's Word like a Berean without using commentaries of any source and applying the two main rules which truly preserve the authority of all Scripture. May these words find an honest heart that puts truth above all else.

Who Is The Creator Of All Things?

Jehovah said that He created all things alone, by Himself without the help of anyone else. See for yourself from the New World Translation (NWT).

A pronouncement: “The word of Jehovah concerning Israel,” is the utterance of Jehovah, the One who is stretching out [the] heavens<sup>e</sup> and laying the foundation of [the] earth<sup>f</sup> and forming the spirit<sup>g</sup> of man* inside him. 2 “Here I am making Jerusalem<sup>h</sup> a bowl [causing] reeling to all the peoples round about;<sup>i</sup> and also against Judah he will come to be in the siege, [even] against Jerusalem.<sup>j</sup> 3 And it must occur in that day<sup>k</sup> [that] I shall make Jerusalem a burdensome stone<sup>l</sup> to all the peoples. will be left remaining in it.<sup>a</sup> 9 And I shall certainly bring the third [part] through the fire;<sup>b</sup> and I shall actually refine them as in the refining of silver,<sup>c</sup> and examine them as in the examining of gold.<sup>d</sup> It, for its part, will call upon my name, and I, for my part, will answer it.<sup>e</sup> I will say, 'It is my people,'<sup>f</sup> and it, in its turn, will say, 'Jehovah is my God.'<sup>g</sup>"<sup>h</sup>

14 "Look! There is a day coming, belonging to Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> and the spoil of you* will certainly be apportioned out in the midst of you. 2 And I shall certainly gather all the nations against Jerusalem for the war;<sup>i</sup> and the city will actually be captured<sup>j</sup> and the houses be pillaged, and the women themselves will be raped.<sup>k</sup> And half of the city must go forth into the exile,<sup>l</sup> but as for the remaining ones* of the people,<sup>m</sup> they will not be cut off from the city.<sup>n</sup>

3 "And Jehovah will certainly go forth and war against those nations<sup>o</sup> as in the day of his warring, in the day of fight.<sup>p</sup> 4 And his feet will actually stand in that day upon the mountain of the olive trees,* which is in front of Jerusalem, on the east;<sup>q</sup> and the mountain of the olive trees must be split at its middle,<sup>r</sup> from the sunrising and to the west.<sup>s</sup> There will be a very great valley; and half of the mountain will actually be moved to the north, and half of it to the south.<sup>t</sup> 5 And you people will certainly flee to the valley of my mountains;<sup>u</sup> because the valley of [the] mountains will reach all the way to Azel.* And you will have to flee, just as you fled because of the [earth]quake in the days of Uz-zia'h the king of Judah.<sup>v</sup> And Jehovah my God will certainly come, all the holy ones being with him.<sup>a,b</sup>

6 "And it must occur in that day [that] there will prove to be no precious light<sup>c</sup>—things will be congealed.<sup>d</sup> 7 And it must become one day that is known as belonging to Jehovah.<sup>e</sup> It will not be day, neither will it be night;<sup>f</sup> and it must occur [that] at evening time it will become light.<sup>g</sup> 8 And it must occur in that day [that] living waters<sup>h</sup> will go forth from Jerusalem,<sup>i</sup> half of them to the eastern sea<sup>j</sup> and half of them to the western sea.<sup>k</sup> In summer and in winter<sup>l</sup> it will occur.<sup>l</sup> 9 And Jehovah must become king over all the earth.<sup>m</sup> In that day Jehovah will prove to be one,<sup>n</sup> and his name one.<sup>o</sup> Joh 19:19 Rev 19:16

12 "And this is what will prove to be the scourge with which Jehovah will scourge all the peoples that will actually do military service against Jerusalem:<sup>x</sup> There will be a rotting away of one's flesh, while one is standing upon one's feet;<sup>y</sup> and one's very eyes will rot away in their sockets, and one's very tongue will rot away in one's mouth.

13 "And it must occur in that day [that] confusion from Jehovah will become widespread among them;<sup>z</sup> and they will actually grab hold, each one of the hand of his companion, and his hand will actually come up against the hand
