Revelation 20:14

And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

Death= (spiritual death) separation or separated from God by unbelief.

Death in this passage is a reference to both the fallen angels and living people at the end of the thousand year reign of Christ who had not yet died and their (the humans) name is not in the Lamb's book of life.

Hell= is a reference to the place where all the dead, unsaved humans are prior to the Great White Throne Judgment.

Matt 25:41

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

Both unsaved humans and fallen Angels, including Satan, are cast into the lake of fire, which is the second death (the place of eternal punishment and separation from God).

The book of life lists the names of all those whoever lived.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Revelation 22:19

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

After the Great White Throne Judgment, the book of life is referred to as the Lamb's book of life. In the Lamb's book of life only the names of the saved are written, because all of the names of the unsaved will have been blotted out.

Revelation 21:27
